The Lodge of Four Seasons awarded “Best of MidAmerica”

LAKE OZARK (MO) - Meetings MidAmerica magazine has awarded The Lodge of Four Seasons the “Best of MidAmerica” award for the fifth year.

Each year, Meetings MidAmerica magazine asks their readership of over 20,000 meeting planners to vote for their favorite meeting locations. Once again, The Lodge of Four Seasons ranks at the top of that important list.

“The Lodge excels in group meetings and conventions, and we are proud to once again receive this award which validates our efforts,” said Mark Brown, president.
